FU-LA-ERH-CHI STEEL PLANT

The Fu-la-erh-chi Steel Plant is located in the southern sector of the city of Fu-la-erh-chi at 47 11N - 123 36E.

The production facilities include one open hearth furnace building and several machine shops, probably with casting and/or forging capabilities. There are no facilities for the production of iron or coke.

This plant was observed to be active on all coverages used in this report (see references). No change to the facilities could be detected
